

Glenelg Primary School Reunion

General Newsletter No. 10
28th October 2006

This should be our last newsletter before the big event!

It's Next Weekend!

For all those who have not seen previous newsletters, here are the details of the Reunion Dinner.

Saturday 4th November 2006

The Morphet Arms

138 Morphet Road

Glengowrie, SA

6:45 p.m. for drinks, check-in etc.

7:30 p.m. sit down

And don't forget that we'll all meet up again the next day for the 125th Anniversary Celebration Carnival at Glenelg School. It gets under way at 11:00 a.m. and the formal ceremony is from 12:00 noon to 1:00 pm. Events and stalls will continue through the afternoon. Many old scholars will be gathering to meet in designated spots. (I suspect ours could be the biggest gathering if we all get there! (A photo opportunity?))

What Are You Wearing?

At the request of a couple of people we are designating the style of dress as smart casual.

Autobiographies

Since the last newsletter Bentley has been inundated with the life-stories of our 1957 Class. All those that were submitted on time have now been incorporated into the reunion book. Any that come late will be photocopied and handed out at the dinner as a supplement to the book. Please note: Bentley cannot take any more after Wednesday. If you cannot submit your autobiography by then, you should make at least 80 copies and bring it with you!

The Book

When you arrive at the dinner you can purchase your copy of our book, The Happy Wanderers, for $15. It is packed with photographs and information about your former classmates, their memories, the teachers, and the school. What a wonderful memento to browse through in years to come and hand on to posterity! We will also bring a limited number to the Carnival at the school on Sunday for any who could not make it to the dinner. And those who cannot come to either event may wish to order a copy in the next few days.

The Dinner List

The current list is attached. We have had a few additions and a few late cancellations since the last newsletter, but just a few seats remain “bumless”.

Memories...

Thanks to all the people who took time to send me their memories of teachers and life at Glenelg Primary. They make great reading as you will see for yourself in the book.

Display of Memorabilia

At the dinner we will have a display of items from our schooldays on two pin-up boards. There is not a lot of space left on the boards, but if you have something you think would be of interest contact Ros Paterson (see below) to discuss it.

If you are unable to make it to the reunion, you might like to send a copy of a recent photo for display. Contact Marlene Grivell to arrange this:
